

HONORS FOR CITIZENSHIP AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

How do students use Honors and CCE to enhance one another?

Capstone

Do your capstone with the help of the CCE major.

- Take advantage of the “Partners” CCE connects with
- Learn new formats for how best to present Capstone with MAX 302

Figuring out what is right for you will be an ongoing discussion with:

- Dr. Mosher: CCE advisor for all honors students (amosher@syr.edu)
- Your honors program advisor
- Your academic advisor in your other major
- Your CCE honors capstone project advisor

Civic Engagement

Help complete your honors civic engagement requirement through a community placement with CCE.

- Take course MAX 310: Community Placement
- Gain non-profit internship experience while exercising civic engagement within the Syracuse Community

Examples of past community placements:

- La Casita
- Greening USA
- Literacy Coalition
- CNY Political Leadership Council
- Inter Faith Works
- Girls Inc.

Meet Yara

Yara is currently a sophomore studying International Relations and CCE. She completed her community placement at Hopeprint where she facilitated an exchange program that fosters cross-cultural communication, leadership and personal development among 7th and 8th graders. This experience gave her tremendous insight to the inner-workings of a post-refugee resettlement organization.

Yara has used her Hopeprint experience with CCE to accomplish her honors civic engagement requirement.
